

Event Name: Web Hunt

Event Description:-

- Web Hunt is a technical event for CE / IT students.
- Student's need to build attractive, mobile friendly web page using HTML Tag and CSS style sheet, also can use Boot Strap.
- They have to put all file and image used in web page building in one folder only.
- We will send definition to all participants via registered Email and based on that they have to code.
- Participants have to perform code on their system but live watch will be there through some video conference platform.

Event Rules:-

1. Participants have to complete given task within given time.
2. Once you completed coding then you have to submit within given deadline.
3. No code will be accepted after submission deadline.
4. Participants can only use Laptop or Desktop to complete task.
5. If any student found doing, violation will be disqualified.
6. Any argument regarding slow internet will not entertain.

7. During the event any student found doing mischief or misconduct lead to be disqualified.

Judging Criteria:-

- Based on web page content arrangement and look of page rank will be given.
 - Event round will be dependent on number of registration.
 - Judging criteria and event rules will be remain same for all round.
 - Definition to develop code will be changed base on round.
 - We also check code structure for page.
 - Code should be efficient, reliable and loading time should be low.
-